Barsotti
FAMILY JUICE CO.
Since 1976

Freshly pressed juices are the Barsotti family's passion! All juices are handcrafted in small batches at the family's solar-powered Apple Hill® Ranch, surrounded by orchards and pines in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains in Northern California. Their team is committed to pressing only the best fruits and vegetables in creating their tempting variety of juices, lemonades, and blends, each flash pasteurized with NO preservatives.

They freshly press top quality juice all year long at their production facility that rivals many small producers of freshly pressed juice. They've replaced the flatbed trucks loaded with cases of juice and piles of ice with refrigerated semi-trucks and vans. Barsotti juices are also flash pasteurized to ensure your safety.

Look for their trucks transporting juice to your local supermarkets and food establishments throughout Northern California.

We hope you enjoy our juices and we guarantee that the quality is the best! – Gael & Joan Barsotti
