

DECAS

Greek immigrant brothers Nicholas, Charles and William Decas started the company in 1934. Today, in their eighth decade, Decas is still a family owned business, selling cranberry products around the world.

They've built their reputation as The Cranberry Ingredient Experts. The Decas family has expertise in every aspect of cranberry growing, processing and marketing. With over 450 acres of cranberry bogs in Massachusetts and contracting with over 150 independent growers throughout the US and Canada, Decas is the second largest cranberry company in the world.

Over 60 million pounds of cranberries are now processed and sold by Decas in over 35 countries worldwide. Decas' state of the art processing facilities in Carver, MA, produce a full line of cranberry products, including: cranberry concentrate, sweetened dried cranberries, and fresh whole cranberries.
