

Extraordinary Service at the Speed of Fresh

Kara Gomes, Food Safety Manager

Kara joined the GP team with an industry background in Food Safety and Human Resource. Over ten years of Food Safety expertise and training enhances Kara's commitment to a comprehensive approach to our operational food safety program. The detail-orientated nature of a sound Food Safety Plan is her passion. Training employees in all aspects of Food Safety, establishing and maintaining logs, processes, and holding vigilance for Third Party Audits scores of 97% or better sets the bar high. Her goals at General Produce are to maintain the already strong values in Food Safety and take the program to the next level.

She received her BS from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, where she studied Agribusiness with a Marketing concentration.

When she isn't working, she spends time with her husband and daughter. Her favorite weekend activity is working cows on her family's 150 year old ranch.
