

Extraordinary Service at the Speed of Fresh

Karen Chan, Procurement Manager

Karen currently manages the day-to-day operations of the buying department as General Produce's Procurement Manager. Every day, she strives to increase the productivity and accountability of the buying department to efficiently support the needs of General Produce customers. With the latest industry trends, new products and innovative uses for them on her mind, she is always open to taking on the challenge of implementing new ideas. She draws on her past experience as the Accounting Manager and time spent in the Human Resources Department to seek ways to strengthen procedures and empower employees. Karen is not afraid to get her hands dirty, and thrives on problem solving and collaborating with others. She is a both a team leader and a team player.

She loves to travel when she can find the time and enjoys reading, volunteering in the community, cooking, and entertaining, but the one thing that brings her the greatest joy is her family and friends.
